BEFORE COMPLETING YOUR APPLICATION:

Your application is the first stage of the recruitment process and it will be looked at by a panel of Cheshire Fire & Rescue staff, including a manager from the department that has the vacancy. From the application, the panel will consider your suitability for the post, and measure the information that you give against the job description and person specification.

You may submit either a typed or a handwritten application. If you hand write your application, please ensure that your handwriting is clearly legible.

Please ensure that your supporting statement is no more than 1,000 words. Anything over this will be discarded and not marked against the sifting criteria.

The 'supporting information' is a very important part of your application, so it is important that you take some time to complete this. Therefore, you should carefully read the job description and person specification and ensure that you possess all 'essential' requirements and as many as possible of the desirable points listed. Your supporting information should reflect your ability to meet the requirements on the person specification. This is important as when your application is assessed we will be looking for evidence that you have the skills and experience that we require. Consider drafting your 'supporting information' on a spare piece of paper before you write up your final statement on the application form. You should ensure that your supporting information reflects your ability to meet the requirements on the person specification.

For example, if one of the requirements on the person specification is 'Excellent attention to detail'.

A poor answer would be – 'I have excellent attention to detail.'

A good answer would be – 'I have excellent attention to detail. For example, when carrying out a task I ensure that I have all the relevant information and equipment before I start. I then follow a check list that I designed to make sure that no element of the task is missed. Before handing the work onto the next person, I run a final check to make sure that all the data is complete and correct. Where possible I ask for feedback so that I can make improvements for next time'.

You can see that the poor answer does not give us enough information, it is purely a statement; however, the good answer gives more information to clearly demonstrate that the person has experience of working with attention to detail.

When you have completed the supporting statement, you must make sure that you submit it and your CV to the HR Resourcing Team prior to the closing time and date.

In the event that your application form is received after the closing date, your application may not be considered.

It is helpful to you to keep a copy of your application, which you can use to jog your memory should you be invited for interview / assessment.

Please ensure that you include a contact phone number and email address. It is important that you complete the Equal Opportunities section of the application as this helps us to monitor our recruitment process. You will also need to complete the declaration form.

If you are successful, we will ask you for 2 referees. As previously stated, they will not be contacted without your permission, but we will require references before a contract of employment can be issued.

All applicants are required to disclose details of any unspent convictions in accordance with the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Any disclosure of an unspent conviction will not automatically disqualify your application unless the nature of the offence renders you unsuitable for the post. All such disclosures will be considered on an individual basis.

For employees who will have contact with children or vulnerable adults in the course of their duties, an Enhanced Disclosure will be carried out. For further information on DBS checks, please refer to www.homeoffice.gov.uk/dbs

If you are successful at interview and offered a contract of employment with Cheshire Fire and Rescue Service, we will conduct right to work checks and we will require copies of your original certificates for the educational qualifications you have declared on your application.
